Q2 | SPRING 2023

Savings are in Full Bloom!

The weather is warming up and the flowers are starting to bloom..with everything starting new and fresh, springtime is an excellent reminder to get excited about savings again!

The most important thing to remember when saving money is to set a goal and start small. For example, maybe you want to save up for an awesome new bike. Make a chart and write down how much you need to save and how much you've saved so far. That way, you can see how much closer you are to getting your new bike every time you add some money to your savings.

You can also set up a jar or piggy bank in your room and put in a few coins each day. This can help you get used to saving money and it's especially fun when you get to see how much you've saved up at the end of the month. Don't forget to bring it into the credit union to help grow your Cadet Savings account!

Saving money is an important part of growing up and it can be fun too. With a little patience and a lot of willpower, you can reach all your savings goals. So start saving today and you'll be well on your way to having some extra money for springtime!
