Spring is Here - Hop Into Savings

The sun is coming out and you know what that means... Everything is beginning to blossom! I just love watching all the carrots and other crops grow. You know what else is fun to watch grow? Your savings! Imagine your savings as all the carrots in the world. My parents taught me that carrots don't just pop up out of nowhere...you have to work for them, and give them lots of water and care. Every time I do something around the house, I get a carrot! You have to work hard for your savings, too. Be patient, and keep growing your money, Cadet Saver - you'll be rewarded when you do!
